S. R. No. 57—By Senator Herring:

In Memory of
Harry Benge Crozier

---

Senator Herring offered the following resolution:

(Senate Resolution 47)

WHEREAS, The death of Harry Benge Crozier on July 14, 1970 was an occasion of great sadness for many Texans, and marked the passing of a distinguished journalist; and

WHEREAS, During a career spanning more than fifty years Harry Crozier came to know the workings and the personalities of Texas government as had few men before him, and in the process became one of the better known personalities himself; and

WHEREAS, As a reporter for the San Antonio Express, Harry Crozier covered his first session of the Texas Legislature in the winter of 1913; the following ten regular sessions usually found Harry reporting the news for one of several Texas papers he worked for during that period, a period during which he also became the trusted confidant of many of the prominent political leaders of Texas; and

WHEREAS, Harry Crozier's talents as a newspaperman were perhaps equaled by his skill in other fields, as a publicist he served in many political campaigns, and was once the director of public relations for the American Petroleum Institute and was director of information for the Texas State Health Department; as a magazine editor he modernized the Cattleman magazine and left them with a format used for thirty years thereafter; and as a public servant he was a member and chairman of the Texas Employment Commission from 1941 until the early fifties; and

WHEREAS, Such a man was Harry Crozier that a dinner honoring him in 1965 was attended by more than five hundred persons, and although they ranged in station from the well known and powerful to the most humble of means, they all showed a common respect and admiration for Harry; and

WHEREAS, Harry Crozier was a man whose friendly cheerful nature allowed him to communicate with people from all walks of life, and he will be missed in many places; and

WHEREAS, He is survived by his sister, Mrs. Horance P. Smith of Miami, Florida; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, By the Senate of the 62nd Texas Legislature that by this resolution tribute is paid to Harry Benge Crozier; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be prepared for the family, and that when the Senate adjourns this day it do so in memory of Harry Crozier.

HERRING

Signed—Lieutenant Governor Ben Barnes; Aikin, Bates, Beckworth, Bernal, Blanchard, Bridges, Brooks, Christie, Connally, Creighton, Grover, Hall, Harrington, Harris, Hightower, Jordan, Kennard, Kothmann, Mauzy, McKool, Moore, Patman, Ratliff, Schwartz, Sherman, Snelson, Wallace, Watson, Wilson, and Word.

The resolution was read.
